ASSEMBLE IN GOD'S NAME

GATHERING — Morning Hymn

Gordon Young

SILENT PRAYER OF PREPARATION

God of grace, you have come to us in Jesus Christ so we might have new life—here on earth with each other. You seek that we surrender to your grace and completely change our lives—so we might know new strength in you, so we might love beyond frustrations, so we might help and serve others as a witness to your power and grace. Be in all our days, for we pray in the name of the Risen Christ. Amen.

Forgive our sins, we pray, and give us a true repentance that leads to life for all creation. We pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

Music Notes

Today's Psalter reading reminds us of the majesty in God's creation: Praise him, sun and moon; praise him, all you shining stars! As we gather for worship, we will hear Gordon Young's lovely Morning Hymn. This piece captures the first light of day with harmonies that cascade down the keyboard each time a new idea begins. Although "hymns" are most associated with religious texts or poetry, they can also be instrumental pieces that were written with the intent of praise and celebration.

Continuing in our Eastertide celebrations, the prelude turns to a wonderful setting by William Endicott. Brynn Myrddin is Welsh tune by J. Morgan Nicholas (1895-1963) written for the text Mawr oedd Crist yn nhragwyddoldeb by Welsh Baptist minister and author Titus Lewis (1773-1811). A stunning setting full of solos that continue to build to a full conclusion, this work keeps joy alive as we give thanks for our Risen Lord.

Mawr oedd Crist yn nhragwyddoldeb,	Great was Christ in life eternal,
Mawr yn gwisgo natur dyn;	Great on earth in man's disguise;
Mawr yn marw ar Galfaria,	Great in dying on Mount Calvary,
Mawr yn maeddu angau'i hun;	Great in conquering death itself;
Hynod fawr yw yn awr,	Mighty great is He now,
Brenin nef a dawar lawr.	King of heaven and earth in one.

Dr. Angela Kraft Cross is an accomplished musician as well as physician. She graduated from Oberlin College and Conservatory of Music with undergraduate degrees in physics and organ performance. She then earned her Doctor of Medicine degree and later a Master of Music degree in piano performance. Her piece, Empathy, comes from a multimovement work entitled Journey to Wholeness that tells a story of illness and healing. While the inspiration came from physical illness and the anxiety and stress of being a caregiver, this hauntingly beautiful music touches my heart and speaks to me in a direct way. Our Gospel lesson today comes from Jesus' lesson for his followers: I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples if you have love for one another. "Empathy" means the ability to understand and share the feelings of another. It is a word synonymous with "togetherness," a state of being close to another person or other people. When we come together in mutual respect and love of our sisters and brothers in Christ, there is nothing that we cannot solve together. May this commandment stir our hearts to show more care and compassion for each other so that all will know who we serve.

Aria by Leon Nelson is a lovely work that harkens back to the Romantic period with its harmonies and forms. A modern composer, Nelson served a faithful career in church music for Presbyterian churches in the Chicago area.

As we wish our graduates all the best for the journey ahead, we will hear Recessional in C by John S. Dixon. With full organ and solo trumpet, this piece carries a hopeful voice and reminds us of the text from the previous hymn: There's a dawn in ev'ry darkness, bringing hope to you and me. From the past will come the future; what it holds, a mystery, unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.
