ASSEMBLE IN GOD'S NAME

GATHERING — There is a Balm in Gilead

arr. Mark Hayes

SILENT PRAYER OF PREPARATION

Holy Creator: you bring us together in this sanctuary, calling us from all those places where we live and work and play, so we can recognize you in faces lined with wisdom; so we can hear you in the questions of the smallest child; so we can sit up and notice all that you do in our midst. Open our hearts and minds to worship you, Amen.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Whether we live in an apartment or a house; if we reside in the suburbs or the city:

God tells us to pray for the places where we live.

Whether we are exiles or prisoners for the gospel; if we are young, old, insider, outcast:

God says, 'when you search for me, you will find me.'

Whether we have been wandering and lost; or if we have lived in the same place all our lives:

God says, 'I will gather you from all your places and bring you home.'

† HYMN 301 — Let Us Build a House

TWO OAKS

† CALL TO CONFESSION

† PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God beyond borders, we know that on our way to worship, we may not have noticed the exiles in our neighborhoods. We admit how easy it is for us to wander down the streets of temptation, pausing at the corner of easy choices. We fall silent in the presence of those who speak words of anger and hate. We tolerate a culture that suspects all who are different from us. Have mercy on us, O God, for surely you take the side of justice. Open our hearts to all the wonders you are performing in our lives. You gift us with those of other cultures, that our lives might be blessed. You send us friends out of places we least expect, that our community might be enriched. You call us to be generous with our blessings, so others might be graced with the gift of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. Amen.

† KYRIE ELEISON

Three staves of musical notation in G major (one sharp) and 3/2 time. The lyrics are: Lord, have mercy upon us. Christ, have mercy upon us. Lord, have mercy upon us.

† DECLARATION OF FORGIVENESS

Friends, hear and believe the good news;
In the name of Jesus Christ, we are forgiven! Thanks be to God!

† GLORIA PATRI

Hymnal, 581

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Amen.

† TIME WITH YOUNG DISCIPLES

Dave Garvey

At this time, all children (pre-K 4 through third grade) are invited to leave the service to attend "Children's Time." Children can be picked up on the second floor of the Fellowship Hall after the worship service.

SERMON — "Seek the Welfare of the City"

Rev. Deb de Boer

GIVE THANKS TO GOD

MOMENT FOR SILENT MEDITATION

We believe that God has revealed God's self as the one who wishes to bring about justice and true peace among people; that God, in a world full of injustice and enmity, is in a special way the God of the destitute, the poor and the wronged; that God calls the church to follow God in this; for God brings justice to the oppressed and gives bread to the hungry; that God frees the prisoner and restores sight to the blind; that God supports the downtrodden, protects the stranger, helps orphans and widows and blocks the path of the ungodly; that for God pure and undefiled religion is to visit the orphans and the widows in their suffering; that God wishes to teach the church to do what is good and to seek the right; that the church must therefore stand by people in any form of suffering and need, which implies, among other things, that the church must witness against and strive against any form of injustice, so that justice may roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream; that the church as the possession of God must stand where the Lord stands, namely against injustice and with the wronged; that in following Christ the church must witness against all the powerful and privileged who selfishly seek their own interests and thus control and harm others. Therefore, we reject any ideology which would legitimate forms of injustice and any doctrine which is unwilling to resist such an ideology in the name of the gospel.

MUSIC NOTES

Sometimes I feel discouraged and think my work's in vain, but then the Holy Spirit revives my soul again. There is a balm in Gilead to make the wounded whole, there is a balm in Gilead to heal the sin-sick soul.

This text from the African American spiritual There is a Balm in Gilead reminds us that becoming disheartened is a part of everyone's journey, but God's grace is always present in our lives giving us strength for the work we are called to do. The arrangement by Mark Hayes is a beautiful example of this transformation as it flourishes from a timid beginning to a triumphant conclusion.

Dr. Angela Kraft Cross is an accomplished musician as well as physician. She graduated from Oberlin College and Conservatory of Music with undergraduate degrees in physics and organ performance. She then earned her Doctor of Medicine degree and later a Master of Music degree in piano performance. Her piece, Empathy, comes from a multimovement work entitled Journey to Wholeness that tells a story of illness and healing. While the inspiration came from physical illness and the anxieties of caregiving, it also connects to today's reading from Jeremiah: But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the LORD on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare. "Empathy" means the ability to understand another person or people. Seeing the mutual likeness of God in each other's face is a form of empathy that has the power to transform our hearts and help us look beyond differences to serve our world. Let us build a house where hands will reach beyond the wood and stone to heal and strengthen, serve and teach, and live the Word they've known. Here the outcast and the stranger bear the image of God's face; let us bring an end to danger: all are welcome, all are welcome, all are welcome in this place. This lyrical piece uses a solo stop over oscillating movement in the accompaniment and creates a call-and-response dialogue between the melody and pedal.

The reading from Timothy tells us "...the word of God is not chained." The Spanish hymn, When the Poor Ones, is found on page 762 in the Glory to God hymnal. Directly referencing the "least of these" parable from Matthew, each stanza begins with "when" (cuando) and ends with "then God still goes that road with us" (va Dios mismo en nuestro mismo caminar). God in Christ is seen through acts of love and selflessness, and this haunting melody points us toward daily service of others. Little is known about the composers of this music, but their work came post-Vatican II when the Catholic Church began to explore congregational singing and liberation theology was brought forward in teachings.

Georg Muffat was a French Baroque composer who was well-traveled, well-educated, and considered one of the first composers to transplant ideas of styles between various countries. (This can be seen in the work of other composers at this time such as G. F. Handel.) His set of multi-sectional toccatas were well-received and simply named for their compositional number; Toccatà Undecima means Eleventh Toccata. The beautiful Adagio is a simple progression that climbs upward and finds momentum in frequent ornamentations and moving rhythms in the melody.

David Lasky's Postlude on Truro celebrates the hymn tune with a march-like quality and full foundations in the organ. As we leave this sacred space, may we be inspired to greater service and remember to see the image of God in those we meet along the way. Live into hope! The blind shall see with insight and with clarity, removing shades of pride and fear, a vision of our God brought near.
